Deputy Assessor Thos J. Tennant has lately been up to Elko to see about the Narrow Gauge railroad, and yesterday we received a private letter from him, inclosing an invitation to a grand Narrow Gauge Ball. The invitation card reads as follows: "It is customary to celebrate all important undertakings, and as the Eastern Nevada railroad has passed from a myth to a reality, it is but proper that this great fact should be made the event of great festivity by the people generally, and with such intentions there will be and with such intentions there will be iven a grand ball at the Cosmopolitan given's grand ball at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, in Elko, on Thursday evening, April 17th, 1872." Mr. Tennant says the work of constructing the road has been commenced in earnest, and he is assured by those who should know, that Eureka is to have a branch at the earliest possible moment. This is certainly good news, and we earnestly hope that there are to be no more annoying or conflict-ing reports about the matter. We regret e cannot attend the Narrow Gau Ball, but we promis the people of Eiko that we shall not decline a similar invitathat we shall not decide a standar invita-tion when once the iron horse begins to make his regular trips to the Base Range. - Eurek Sentinel, April 12.

Inwins -- We learn that Mrs. Irwin and son, are still stopping at Virginia that she will visit San Francisco b that she will visit San Francisco before returning East with her husband's remains. II. M. Vessey has been appointed administrator for the son. If we are correctly informed it seems that "Beany" did not die rich, his liabilities amounting to $2,500 whereas his assets were only $2,400.—[Gold Hill News, Apr. 10.
